From September 2023

*Are you passionate about children's learning?
Are you an innovative, creative practitioner?
Do you relish working in a friendly environment where you will be supported all the way?*

The Bridge Easton is a new special needs school which opened in Easton in January 2023. The Bridge Easton will grow over the next few years to provide for 170 children and young people with cognition and learning difficulties and autism. As a school we will work with children, their families and other professionals within education, health, and care to support our children and young people to have a successful journey through their education. In September, we hope to open The Base. The Base will offer a bespoke education to children and young people with severe autism in addition to their cognition and learning difficulties. Our teaching vacancies could be within our main school or within The Base depending on the successful candidates interests and experience.

We are seeking to build a team of teachers who want to be part of the exciting journey helping to shape and grow our new school, are you:

- Positive and creative with a flexible approach to teaching
- An excellent teacher with enthusiasm and passion to impact positively on student wellbeing and progress
- Committed to a positive approach to supporting behaviour

We can offer you:

- Excellent professional development opportunities
- A supportive community and a committed team of staff that are equally determined to give pupils the best possible opportunities
- An opportunity to develop your own ideas through practitioner-led research
- Opportunities to work with other staff in other schools to share best practice

The Bridge MAT:

The Bridge Easton is part of family of schools. The Bridge MAT already oversees the work of three Special Schools, a Primary School, an outreach service and a Development Centre. All of these are based in London. The Bridge Easton will be the first school in the MAT outside of London. Join us if you would like to be a part of this exciting development.
