

Fen Rivers Staff Online Learning / Continuous Professional Development : March 2020

These can be ideal for your CPD folders and the majority of them come out with a certificate of completion.

The Open Learn - Produced by The Open University have some really interesting Level 1 - 3 courses that can help practitioners broaden their knowledge on various areas. A lot of the courses you don't actually need to sign up to either!

I have linked below some of the key ones that we could benefit from as practitioners. - If you do complete some can you please email me a copy of the certificate so we can file it into your CPD folders! 😊
