The weeks seem to go more and more quickly at the moment. The Summer seems to have arrived and finally there are beginning to be signs that lockdown might be eased in the next six weeks and we can begin to think about returning to some kind of normal.

Yesterday we were overwhelmed at school to receive a care package for staff from Gratitude Angels in Kings Lynn. We have been working so hard and under such pressure in these unprecedented times and staff were quite emotional to be remembered and thanked for their hard work. The feeling of care from others in the community is lovely. Thank you to you all. Miss McCarthy and Miss Good gratefully accepted on everyone's behalf.

We have spent a lot of time risk assessing the school site and ensuring measures are in place to make social distancing possible, removing soft furnishings, storing toys and games and making sure there is sufficient PPE on site. We continue to follow

government guidance with the safety and wellbeing of all of our staff and young people at the centre of every decision we are taking at this time.

Here are some lovely photos of the work you have been completing this week. It's great to see so much enrichment and outdoor learning going on, and seeing the great photography skills. Lots of learning outside of the classroom. Well done everyone. Keep up
